

Let's Talk Northern Lakes (including San Remo-Budgewoi and Toukley)

Engagement Summary

The Let's Talk Northern Lakes (including San Remo-Budgewoi and Toukley) campaign was designed to provide access for the community to discuss local matters with their local Council staff and for local Council staff to speak directly to the community they are serving.

The engagement process for the Let's Talk Northern Lakes campaign presented an online interactive map for participants to make comments and submissions as well as two four-hour drop-in information sessions where participants were invited to comment, share ideas and issues on the Northern Lakes including San Remo-Budgewoi and Toukley planning area.

Engagement Results

Central Coast residents provided feedback on the future of the Northern Lakes including San Remo-Budgewoi and Toukley planning area.

Common themes were:

- Investment in the health of the lakes and waterways within the planning area is imperative to the amenity and usability of the area (for swimming, recreational and fishing purposes).
- Pathways for connectivity and recreation purposes are important.
- Roads and kerb and guttering improvements in the planning area are required.

What next

A review of the feedback received during the consultation period is currently being undertaken.

Council will conduct further analysis of the comments received and will provide a full consultation report which will be available to the community soon.
