The Entrance sector is built on restaurants. Promotion and investment into waterway , estuaries, coastal environment should be a priority to have local supply for small commercial business promoting economy into our community.

The Entrance district is evolving once again and to attract visitors to the retail sector, the area needs a drawcard. People visit the area to fish and use the waterways. At present this is quite difficult due to silting and lake closures. Many residents migrated to this area from other parts of NSW and Australia because of its beauty and close proximity to Sydney and Newcastle. Allowing further thoughtful and necessary development would improve an area that has so much more to offer residents and tourists alike.

It's an area with GREAT history, but it's evolving faster than some areas of the Coast due to the spectacular Beaches, surfing, fishing, lakes, walks, cycling, golf and so much more. It's close to both Sydney & Newcastle - about ½ way! But there is so much housing shortage in the area, that motels are filled with Housing personnel and no room for tourists in motels any more! Some areas are going to have to be sacrificed for large developments, and this is one of them! If done sensibly and not too high it could benefit the entire coast! It would provide much more housing for all Socio economic levels.

Have a set area for commerce / industry. We are already like an outer suburb of Sydney don't make it even more congested and crowded. The roads are already at capacity. We should try and make more open space.
