

Concept - Park

The design aims to create meaningful and unique opportunities to connect with the site by proposing a path emerging from the existing shared path. The path loops around the water's edge and offers different experiences and views of Brisbane Water.

*the grey circles with a dot in the centre indicate existing trees while the grey circles without a dot represent proposed trees

